Japanese Foreign Minister Welcomes American Fleet to the Pacific Ocean and to Japanese Ports.

Tokio, Dec. 19.—Japan will heartily welcome the American fleet of battleships to the Pacific and to the ports of this country if it be decided to extend the trip in this direction. The fact that the fleet is sailing towards the Pacific creates no excitement in Japanese islands and Japan views in the friendliest manner any action which America may, within the scope of her wisdom, see fit to take in the disposition of its naval forces. Foreign Minister Viscount Hayashi, in giving the above statement to the Associated Press representative, this morning, voiced the sentiment of the whole Japanese people.

BEST BADGER BUTTER AWARD IS DECIDED

Two Wisconsin Dairymen Tie on High Scores at State University Exhibition.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 19.—P. H. Holgerman, Troy Center, and T. H. Kipp, Albion, are tied for first place in the University of Wisconsin butter securing exhibition for December, the butter of each having been graded 97.33. Second place to E. M. Verner of Waterville, with a score of 97.3, and third to C. F. Jones of Green Bay, whose score was 96.18. The highest score was 97.33, the lowest 88.64, and the average 93.4. The maximum molecule content was 15.7, the minimum 14.8, and the average 15.2.

The butter was of excellent quality for this time of year; only five tubs were of mottled or uneven color. The principal flavor defects were those of high acid, old milk, old cream, and cow hump. In many cases the high acid flavor seemed to result from keeping the temperature too high for too long a time. The old cream and cow hump flavors suggest the necessity of more frequent delivery of cream, better ventilation of barns, and the removal of milk from the barn as soon as it is drawn.

Choperton, Wis., Dec. 19.—A defective chimney flue caused a $3,000 loss on the Steinhilber farm near here, the house being totally destroyed, with a large part of the contents. The flue had secured a big start, before discovered and attempts to remove the furnishings were unavailing after a short time. The property is an old landmark of the county but the dwelling had been rebuilt in recent years and was modern. The insurance partly covers the loss and the house will be replaced.

OHIO MURDERER TO PAY PENALTY TODAY

Pardon Board Refuses to Interfere in the Case of Frank Earl, an Ex-Convict.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Columbus, O., Dec. 19.—Unless Governor Charles F. Brannan on his own volition, which is considered quite improbable, there will be no execution in the case of the state prison early tomorrow morning. The man destined to pay the death penalty is Frank Earl, who was sent up from Sidney for the murder of William Legg, Legg was a butcher and the murder was committed while Earl and a companion were in the act of robbing Legg's shop. Earl's home is in Washington, D. C., and strong efforts were made to have his sentence commuted to life imprisonment. In view of his previous bad record, however, the pardon board refused to interfere. It developed at the hearing that he had been in trouble in Washington and had also served a sentence in the Illinois state prison.

FLORIDA'S SENATOR SAID TO BE IN POOR HEALTH

Senator Malloré Of The Everglades State Comes From A Distinguished Family.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19.—Public officials in Washington, especially the oldtimers, have learned with deep regret of the serious illness of United States Senator Malloré of Florida. Senator Malloré has been confined to his home in Pensacola for the past month, suffering from a general breakdown, and his condition is said to be critical.

The Malloré family of Florida is among the most conspicuous in the evolution of politics. Since 1851 it has contributed three members of the United States senate, in which year the elder Malloré was chosen from Florida. Ten years ago his son was like honored by the same constituency and when he reached Washington and joined the toga the singular coincidence presented itself of meeting in the same capacity a cousin, Senator White of California, now deceased, and nephew of the elder Malloré.

Stephen R. Malloré, father of the present senator, was born on the island of Trinidad in 1813. He settled in Florida at an early age, and in 1851 was elected a United States senator, in which capacity he continued to serve his state until Florida seceded in 1861. Three days after Jefferson Davis was inaugurated President of the Confederate states he appointed Senator Malloré secretary of the navy, a position which he held until the fall of Richmond in 1865. Stephen R. Malloré, the present senator, was born in Pensacola in 1849. When barely fifteen years of age he joined Lee's army in Virginia as a private. After the war he entered Georgetown college and for two years after his graduation he taught a class there. He then removed to New Orleans and was admitted to the bar. In 1874 he returned to Pensacola and began practicing law. He was elected to the Florida legislature in 1880, and to the Florida senate in 1880, being re-elected in 1884. He was elected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third congresses, and was sent to the United States senate in 1897.

Though he never aspired to leadership in the senate Senator Malloré has been a conspicuous figure in that body. He has been intensely loyal to the senate he represents, a veneration born of long age and stimulated by the fragrance of cherished memories.

FOUR HUNDRED IN MINE THOUGHT TO BE ALL KILLED

Another Terrible Mine Disaster Is Expected in Vicinity of Pittsburg.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Columbiana, Pa., Dec. 19.—Four hundred miners were entombed in the Darr mines of the Pittsburg Coal company at Jacobs Creek, 18 miles west of here. Of these four hundred, fully one hundred are Americans, the rest are principally Hungarians. A terrible explosion shook the vicinity of the mine at 11:30 this morning. Shortly after smoke began to issue in large columns from the mouth of the mine, which is of the slope variety. The mouth of the mine is wrecked and this circumstance in connection with the fire which was discovered to be racing inside, prevented effectively up to one o'clock any attempts at the rescue of the imprisoned men. On account of the violence of the explosion, which rent the interior of the mine and the presence of the fire together with the blocked condition of the mouth slope it is not thought that there is much chance for the men inside. Number is increased.

West Newton, Pa., Dec. 19.—Reports of the disaster at the Darr mine received here state that there are nearer five hundred men in the mine than four hundred.

BLEW BRAINS OUT WITH AN OLD GUN

GEORGE LEE OF LOUP CITY, NEB., TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

SUFFERED MANY YEARS

Was Married but a Month Ago—Wife
Tried to Commit Suicide
on Sunday Last.

Shortly after eight this morning, George Lee, a prosperous farmer from Loup City, Nebraska, went to an out-building in the rear of 107 Milton avenue, where he and his wife were living and placing a shotgun to his forehead, pulled the trigger and completely blew the top of his head off, scattering blood and brains all over the little building. The shot was heard by his wife's daughter, Mrs. Stott, who notified a neighbor, David Clark, who on opening the door to investigate was struck by the dead body of the man as it toppled over. Officers Summerson, Dr. Gibson and District Attorney John Fisher were summoned by telephone, but life was extinct when Mr. Clark reached the scene. The body was removed to Ryan's undertaking rooms, where it was prepared for burial.

The deceased was sixty-seven years of age and had made his home in Nebraska for the past twenty years, moving there from Belleville, for many years he has been suffering from heart trouble, having been in a hospital twice in Lincoln and once in the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, for treatment.

Recently Married

Mr. Lee was married some four weeks ago to his cousin, Mrs. Hanson Griffin, who was the widow of the late Hanson Griffin who for many years had the popcorn stand on the corner of the Courthouse Park. The marriage was a surprise to Mrs. Griffin's friends, some of whom knew nothing of its approach until she had been married and left the city, Mr. and Mrs. Lee went to Loup City, Nebraska, where he owns a large amount of property and his five children by a former marriage live. Mrs. Lee, however, longed for her home in Janesville and persuaded him to bring her back.

Tried Suicide

The couple returned two weeks ago, making their home in Mrs. Lee's house with a married daughter, Mrs. Stott. On Sunday last Mrs. Lee became suddenly demented and threatened to drown herself. Despite all efforts she started for the river and was found and brought back by her husband. On Monday she again attempted to take her own life by stabbing herself with a pair of scissors and is still in bed as a result of her injuries received at that time. It is believed that this fact and the physical condition of Mr. Lee unbalanced his mind and caused him to commit his rash act.

Was Going Back

A sister of Mr. Lee, Mrs. Taylor of Broadhead, was summoned and reached the city this morning. She says that Mr. Lee expected to return to Loup City after Christmas to look after his affairs, leaving his wife with her if she was able to be moved. Mr. Lee has five children, two sons—James, married, and Marvin, unmarried—and three daughters—Edith, who is married and lives in Colorado, Edna, who is married living near Loup City, and an unmarried daughter, Lulu.

Not Told

Owing to the condition of Mrs. Lee she has not been told of the death of her husband and is being carefully nursed by her daughter, Mrs. Stott, a second daughter, Miss Lois Griffin, is expected from Oregon this evening. Mr. Lee is very wealthy and is said to have been worth some forty to fifty thousand dollars and to have a beautiful home in the west.

IS A SHOPPING CENTER ITSELF

The Masses and Classes Are Satisfactorily Cared For at the Big Store.

That the calamity howlers and hard times shouters have had no perceptible effect on holiday shopping is demonstrated from the crowds which have been upon the streets and in the stores the last day or so. In The Big Store of J. M. Bostwick & Sons, whose floor space can accommodate hundreds of people, the crowds have been enormous. In fact yesterday the great number of people reminded one of a county fair.

One feature of this big establishment is the ease with which the crowds are handled and the promptness with which people are waited upon considering the great amount of business transacted. It is such a pleasure for shoppers to be able to take their time or if they have no list made and select the presents for the entire family. This includes the men as well as the ladies. So many things which can be found for the entire family and the range of materials and prices is so great that no matter how meager the purse nor how extensive the power to make purchases the shopper is satisfactorily suited. Any man can pick out for his wife, or any woman can find for her daughter or friend a delightful gift in the fashionable fur neck pieces which include all of the popular furs ranging as low as $2.50 up to $50. Muffs can be furnished to match all of the scarfs if desired. For those who do much driving the storm collars of fur are suggestive, these range in price from $4.00 to $18.00. The fur coat department of the Bostwick store has been one of its features. A splendid assortment of beautiful furs is here and in the Seasonal coat which is finding so much favor, there are some beautiful garments at $35.00 and if you desire to go as high as $175 the worth of the money will be secured. The children can be remembered with fur sets as low in price as $1.50 and up to $4.50, same thing for Misses at $4.00 to $14.00.

The garment department of The Big Store is second to none and is especially attractive at this Christmas time. The cloaks which are offered are the season's best creations, the very best material and by the best of workmen. One can find just what they desire from this showing at prices which practically do their own talking. A nice feature of purchasing from this stock is the fact that those who are not prepared to make full payment on a coat at present can make partial payment and have the garment laid aside. There is opportunity in the suit department for someone to secure a beautiful suit of broadcloth from thirty-five remaining suits at very little money. There are medium and large sizes in plain colors and mixtures. Children's coats are shown in abundance, in fact the stock has been augmented for Christmas buying.

Special preparations were made through every stock in the store for the holidays and one should visit The Big Store to realize that here is really the mecca for all of the buyers.

Prices, $2.50 to $50.00. Muffs to match all scarfs.

Storm Collars

Of Storm Collars for automobiling and cold drives we offer excellent styles. Among them: NATURAL OPPOSUM, MARTEN, GRAY-OPPOSSUM, SQUIRREL, JAP MINK. Prices, $4.00 to $18.00.

Fur Coats

A strong line with us. We handle the reliable kind and protect our customers, adjusting all reasonable claims if they do not give satisfactory wear. Have them in NEAR-SEAL, plain or fur trimmed, RIVER MINK, MERMINK, WOOL SEAL, PONY BEAVER.

We make a specialty of fine NEARSEAL COATS. Prices, $35.00 to $175.00.

Fur Sets for Misses and Children

These make popular Xmas gifts and we are selling a world of them. The children sets range from $1.50 to $4.50. Misses sets from $6.00 to $14.00.

We show a nice line in both light and dark furs.

Every day we are convincing people that we are showing a stock of FURS that one cannot afford to overlook.

CLOAKS

We have a very fair assortment of sizes in the late style garments, tight fitting, semi-fitting and loose garments. Some of the season's best creations are left. WE EMPHASIZE MATERIAL AND WORKMANSHIP. In our stock can be found blacks, browns, red, navy, green and handsome party coats. The prices are doing their own talking. Women know cloak bargains when they see them. Wise ones are buying now, knowing that by January the stock will be badly broken. Some people who are not prepared to pay in full for a garment are making partial payments and having them laid aside.

OUR SUIT STOCK

Our suit stock contains probably 35 suits all told. Black broadcloth suits, extra good ones, Bostwick quality, medium and large sizes, colored suits, good style, in plain and mixtures. THIS IS SURELY THE OPPORTUNITY YOU HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR TO BUY A SUIT FOR LITTLE MONEY.

Children's Cloaks

Every cloak in the store is included in this great reduction sale. All colors, and all sizes, and the prices are doing the talking. We have enlarged on the cloaks at this time as they make most substantial Xmas presents and WHY NOT BUY NOW, instead of waiting until January?

The Big Store is the place for Furs, Cloaks and Suits.

In the Suits and Cloaks

Many people are taking advantage of the especially low prices which we are offering on all of our cloaks and suits. One might think it was November judging from the activity in the suit and cloak department. WE ARE NOT OVERSTOCKED, and while we have a very fair assortment, we advise anyone interested to not delay coming, as the good things are being snapped up.

It is easy to be an optimist when money is plenty and times are good, but not so easy when prosperity is on the wane. Yet it is well to remember that the material wealth of the nation has not been impaired, in fact it is greater today than ever before. The breathing spell was necessary to take account of stock and discover where we are at. Prosperity will return, and with a safer basis established, will continue for years to come.

WHAT THE NATION NEEDS

What the nation needs today, is a man at the head of the treasury department like J. Pierpont Morgan. He represents a limited class of men known to the world as great financiers, and this reputation has been won by marked success in many financial undertakings.

Men of great resources, who have studied and mastered at close range, the much-discussed question of political economy, and who have solved, in practical ways many problems that students and writers continue to theorize about.

Public and official life seldom attracts this class of men. Politics is distasteful to them, and they are too independent to wear the collar of public service.

Occasionally a man like Secretary Root is induced to sacrifice an income of $100,000 to enter the legal or diplomatic service at one-tenth the income, but it is a rare thing to find a great financier in the treasury department.

Secretary Shaw was the best man for the place of any who have filled it during a decade or more, and he was handicapped because lacking large success, and national reputation in private life.

The present incumbent, Mr. Cortelyou, is an accident, who would never have appeared on the financial horizon but for the fact that back of him is a president who has crowded him to the front through a series of cabinet positions.

This is saying nothing against Mr. Cortelyou, for he is one of the clearest men in the cabinet, but his knowledge of finance is confined to engineering his own salary, and he is no more fitted for the great responsibilities of United States treasurer, than are thousands of clerks, scattered over the country.

The President is practically the treasurer. He orders bond issues at will, and assumes financial responsibility freely. But the President, while great in many ways, is not a great financier. He has been an office-holder for 20 years or more and his financial experience has been confined to safeguarding inherited wealth and directing salary expenditures.

When he instructed his secretary of the treasury to issue $100,000,000 one-year three per cent bonds, he believed that he had solved the financial problem and that within 10 days these bonds would all be placed.

But what was the result? The people didn't want them and the banks wouldn't take them. A few New York banks were induced to take $20,000,000 worth of them, with the distinct understanding that the government should replace the money by special deposit within a week, and here the bond issue stopped, and the scheme was abandoned as a failure.

The houses of congress are not noted for great financial ability. In the lower house a carload of bills on the currency question are now waiting to be ventilated. Every member has a financial scheme, and most of these schemes are as visionary as the wind.

There will be no action on the currency question at the session of congress for the reason that no well-defined plan has been worked out by the treasury department. The national banking system of the country is so closely allied to this department, that it is a part of it, and the man who represents the nation as its treasurer, holds a position second to none in responsibility.

He should be a man of the broadest financial experience, and of world-wide reputation as a successful financier.
The people are suffering today for lack of money to conduct business, and failure stares many men in the face who might be saved from wreckage if idle money could be brought to their relief.
The treasury vaults at Washington have more than half a billion of this kind of money, retired from circulation because no plan has yet been discovered to release it. If the nation ever needed a resourceful treasurer and a big-brained financier it needs him today.

The expense of coal for the Atlantic squadron, which has just sailed for the Pacific, on a mission of peace, was $1,250,000. It will cost as much more for fuel to get the fleet home, and about the same amount for cruising purposes while abroad. "Is the powder worth the candle," is the question just now freely discussed. The President thinks so, and the President can do no wrong.

The failures for November aggregate over $11,000,000 as compared with less than $4,000,000 for the corresponding month last year. B. G. Dun & Company, in classifying the list, find that 60 per cent of the mercantile failures are represented by small tradespeople, indicating that loss of work has resulted in cutting off the luxuries, and reducing the necessities of life to the minimum. Hard times is a new experience for many people.

It is easy to be an optimist when money is plenty and times are good, but not so easy when prosperity is on the wane. Yet it is well to remember that the material wealth of the nation has not been impaired, in fact it is greater today than ever before. The breathing spell was necessary to take account of stock and discover where we are at. Prosperity will return, and with a safer basis established, will continue for years to come.

Think This Over

There are lots of people in the city who are wearing crowns in their mouths for which they have paid an even ten dollars each.

That's all right if one couldn't do better, but when you stop to think that for exactly half that amount you may now get exactly the same work by choosing Dr. Richards for your Dentistry.

It becomes a matter of simple justice to your own purse to think twice before you repeat the offense.

There are dentists in Chicago who charge $35.00 an hour for their time. And there are others—just as good operators—that do not get half that fee.

It's all in the nerve of the dentist how much he makes you pay him for his services.

Dr. Richards has built his present large practice upon the theory that the best work coupled with reasonable prices will win out in the end.

Dr. Richards says:

"If you can show me a single point of superiority of those $10 crowns over my $5 crown.

I would be glad to know it. I am willing to be convinced. But I declare to you, I have compared them day after day as I see them in my patients' mouths.

And I know what I am talking about.

It makes no difference whether you pay $10 or $50.

You get the same crown.

Consult Dr. Richards and save your hard-earned money.

BEET SLICING

SUGAR FACTORY COMPLETED
1907 RUN ON TUESDAY

BEST SEASON ON RECORD

Fewer Stops and Larger Daily Output—Manufacture of Sugar to be Completed Saturday—Next Pay Day Jan. 5.

Tuesday night the Rock County Sugar Co. completed slicing the 1907 run of beets and the management expressed itself as highly gratified with the season's showing. The manufacture of sugar will be completed by Saturday and by Thursday of next week the big institution will be placed in shape for the winter and closed down.

"Bigger and Better Run

"We have had a much larger and better run than last season," said Manager A. L. Osburn this morning. "We have not only run heavier each day but there have been fewer stops, and the beets have been in better shape. It follows that the output of sugar will be considerably larger than heretofore. The contracts are coming in fast for next season. We already have agreements for more acreage than we had on April 1 last year."

Discontent at Menominee Falls

The season began soon after the first of October and the plant closes a little before Christmas, just as it did last year. In addition to its regular corps, the factory has given employment recently to a number of workmen who were thrown out of work at the Beloit factories, and the big disbursements to growers and employees have had a very helpful influence on local market conditions. The next and last pay day would ordinarily come on Jan. 15, but the management will probably decide to make it on Jan. 5—ten days earlier. Much of the acreage during the past season was secured in the Racine and Menominee Falls districts. During the present week several delegations of growers from the "Falls" region, dissatisfied with that factory's expedient of paying for beets with promissory notes, have been here to offer their 1908 acreage to the local concern.

REV. CHARLES F. AKED, D. D.
Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army is reported to have said in an address in Berlin, Germany, that "The people everywhere seem to be tiring of religion. There are 2,000,000 persons in London who never enter a church. It is the same in Europe, America and heathen countries." Rev. Charles Aked of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church in New York city takes exception to this statement. Rev. Aked is a man of world wide experience in religious work, having spent most of his career before coming to America in England. In an interview secured with Rev. Aked he expresses himself as follows:

"I say at once that I should need considerable evidence to convince me that General Booth over said anything of the sort. I know General Booth and that is not a statement I should look for from him. Whether he said so or not, I do not believe it. I hesitate to express an opinion about the condition of things in this new world to which I have just come, but I am satisfied that there is no foundation for the fear amongst the European peoples. The truth is that some reporter failed to distinguish between a statement regarding ecclesiasticalism and churches on the one hand and religion on the other. The people are tiring of churches as they know them in most of the European countries, and they are right. It would hardly be going too far to say that a prophet may yet have to raise the cry of Voltaire 'Ecrasez l'infame'—for clericalism is still the enemy. Here in this country the people know nothing of what the church is in the older countries—a spellator, an oppressor, a tyrant, a curse. But still the heart of man cries God, and the conviction of my life is that a large number of people every day own the sway of Jesus Christ over a larger area of their life."

To Avoid Wet Feet.
When taking long tramps with my husband I often suffered from wet feet until I discovered the following articles of wearing apparel: I bought oil silk and of this made leggings, which I wore inside of my shoes. The water could then splash over my rubbers with no ill effects. The leggings do not impede walking, nor do they injure the feet as do rubber boots.—Good Housekeeping.

DEBATING SOCIETIES HAVE ANNUAL DEBATE

Philomathean and Athena Literary Societies' Contest Takes Place Tonight.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Dec. 19.—The annual joint debate between the state university literary societies, for over a quarter of a century the most important formal contest in the institution, will take place this evening between representatives of the Philomathean and Athena societies. That the administration of insurance would be outside the proper field of activity of state government, is the subject for discussion. Representatives of Philomathean, Edgar E. Robinson, '08, Oconomowoc; Edwin F. Gruhl, '08, Milwaukee; and James W. Shannon, '08, Oconomowoc, will maintain that state insurance is not advisable, while the representatives of Athena, Raymond B. Frost, '08, Almond; Julius O. Roehl, '08, Milwaukee; and Gerhard A. Gwinn, '08, Madison, will oppose state administration of insurance. The judges are Justice J. E. Dodge of the Wisconsin supreme court; Miles P. Haugen, Wisconsin tax commissioner; J. M. Winterbottom, Wisconsin railroad commissioner; Prof. W. Conliffe of the English department; and Prof. Evander B. McIlvaine of the department of philosophy.

Makes Nest Lightning Proof.
The humming bird in Australia, no less than man, protects its habitation with a lightning rod. The humming bird before a devastating thunderstorm bursts promptly covers the outside of its little nest with cobweb. Silk is a non-conductor of electricity, and since cobweb is silk the humming bird's nest is thereby rendered lightning proof.

ROCKFORD,

WE HAVE A

Leucodescent Violet Ray Electric Light

AT OUR SANITARIUM

From the New York and Chicago Tribunes

In an effort to effect rapid cures of certain diseases the surgeons at the New York Skin and Cancer hospital, at Nineteenth street and Second avenue, are experimenting with the leucodescent light, discovered by Dr. William S. Balmbridge, the eminent specialist who is a visiting surgeon at this hospital. The leucodescent light used has 500 candle power and is made intensely strong by parabolic reflectors.

Surgeons who have experimented with the light are wonderfully impressed with its power. They say it relieves pains of almost any kind. In the treatment of acute indigestion surgeons say it has accomplished great results, benefiting the patient in a few minutes after it has been used.

The surgeons are puzzled, however, in determining whether the curative powers are in the rays of the light or in the heat emitted from the bulb. The light focused on the seat of the pain producing a congestion of the skin which immediately increases the blood supply. "The combination of the light and heat," said one of the physicians, "is evidently the cause of the mysterious healing."

and are having wonderfully good success in treatment of all kinds of STOMACH TROUBLE, NERVE DISEASES and RHEUMATISM. We also have different kinds of electricity, and ELECTRIC VIBRATION, also MASSAGE, OSTEOPATHY, DRY HOT AIR and WATER TREATMENT, BATHS, OIL RUBS and PROPER DIET for each individual case. Best of care day and night. Well trained nurses.

PHYSICIANS

This should interest you. Send your patients to our place, we follow your directions carefully, give them the very best of care, and patients all have the extra benefit of our different kinds of treatments without extra cost, and at a price per week less than the cost of a first class nurse in your home. Our rooms are elegant, beautiful, river and lawn view.

Invalids whether confined to their bed or not, will here find all the comforts of an elegant home. Skillful attendants always in the house. The utmost privacy may be maintained by patients who desire to be secluded.

If you are sick and want to get well, this is just the place for you. If you are simply tired and worn out from overwork or social duties, our Rest Cure Treatments will soon give you the relaxation you need and nature will do the rest.

CASTLE DU PENA, ROYAL SUMMER PALACE OF THE KING AND QUEEN OF PORTUGAL.

Labon, Portugal, Dec. 10.—A serious crisis impends Portugal. This city, the national capital, is now practically under martial law. There is every indication that the anti-dynastic is growing. The censorship over telegraphic dispatches is strict and the postoffice collection refuse to accept letters which do not carry the address of the sender on the envelope.
In view of this condition it is difficult to inform the world of the exact conditions, but they are serious. The king of Portugal, Carlos I., has banished the Crown Prince Luiz to Villa Vicosa, a royal residence in an isolated part of Portugal, 100 miles from Labon. This step was taken in consequence of the crown prince remaining with his father against the dictatorial regime carried on by Senor Franco, the prime minister, with the king's assent and support. The crown prince, whose antagonism to the dictatorship was well known, represented to his father the inadvisability of continuing the present method of government, which he said, is turning Portugal into a hotbed of republicans and anarchists and which might end in the overthrow of the monarchy. Carlos, greatly incensed, ordered the crown prince into what is practically exile from the capital.

The king's action added fuel to the flames which are already burning.

Popular antagonism to the dictatorship grows dangerous, just as the help apparent predicted.

An official statement given out by the government declares the situation has been badly misrepresented. The statement says "The fantastic rumors concerning members of the royal family, the attitude of the military forces and political leaders, as well as the stories of an outbreak against order are absolutely without foundation."

The fact remains that the Crown Prince Luiz has been practically banished. The fact also remains that the detachments of police and municipal guards, consisting of 1,200 infantry and 500 cavalry, have been confined to their barracks for several days in preparation for any emergency which might arise.

An international demonstration has been arranged for January 2, when, it is stated, it is intended to proclaim a national assembly. The support of the army is relied upon in the movement.
Senor Villena is credited with having declared openly that the struggle between King Carlos and the people can only be ended by his majesty's abdication or deposition. Much disaffection is reported among the officers of the navy. Three generals are said to have been relieved of their commands and many political prisoners have been placed on board a cruiser and sent away.

It is noteworthy that the Portuguese situation has been painted as black as this before, but nothing has overmaterialized.

King Carlos, the first, ascended the throne in 1888. He married in 1889 Maria Amelia, daughter of Duke D'Orlean. Their one son, Luiz Phillips, is the present heir and is still a beardless youth. The constitution of the government in Portugal dates back to the charter granted by Pedro, the fourth, in 1825, which has been altered and liberalized by later acts of the assembly. The king, an executive, has a responsible cabinet of seven members.
Legislative authority is vested in the cortes general, composed of a house of peers and a house of commons, the latter only being elective. Portugal was formerly a part of Spain until 1640, when revolt from Spanish rule resulted in the crowning of the legiti-mate heir, the Duke Braganza. Following that for a quarter of a century a struggle, finally successful for independence followed. In 1853 the crown passed to Pedro, the fifth, the first representative of the house of Braganza-Coburg, which still holds supreme authority in the person of Dom Carlos.

TOURIST CLUB HAVE A CHRISTMAS TREE
First of Season's Festivities at Evanville Prove Very Interesting.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Evansville, Dec. 10.—One of the most enjoyable events of the holiday season was the annual Christmas tree of the Tourist club which took place at the home of Alex D. D. Speer last evening. A pretty decoration of crimson bells gave the room an appearance of Yuletide gaiety.
The tree stood in the reception room and was brilliantly ornamented with tiny electric lights, the bulbs being in a variety of colors and was well laden with gifts, the majority of which were of a humorous nature and the distribution brought forth repeated shouts of laughter. A Christmas greeting to the club in the form of an original poem was received from Miss Alice Spencer, an absent member who is now a teacher in Montana, Montana, and its reading drew forth numerous expressions of enjoyment and appreciation. The remainder of the program which was of a highly entertaining nature consisting of an original song composed by two or three of the witty members, and several tableaux occupied the time until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served.

The Misses June Baker and Elsie Pitt were over-Sunday guests at the home of Prof. Taylor in Janesville.
The young ladies were invited to sing at the morning and evening service of the Presbyterian church in that city, each rendering a solo, and then giving a duet.

Thorton-Hollister came home from Yale last evening to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Helen Hollister.

Arthur Doyne and bride returned from their wedding trip yesterday and are moving into the M. J. Carlo house on Park street.

Ray Droughton of the U. W., who has been very ill for the past three weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs.
Willie Griffith, is slowly improving.

George Jacobs of Janesville was a recent visitor in this city.

There was a good attendance at the auction sale on the farm of P.
A. Smith yesterday. Everything sold well, the horses bringing up to $138.

Dr. and Mrs. Leon Patterson were expected to arrive in this city next Monday from Green Bay to visit parents and other relatives. Mrs. Paterson will remain with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Baker, for two or three weeks, but Mr. Paterson will return soon after Christmas, being unable to be absent from his place of business for only a short time.

At the last regular meeting of Union Lodge, F. & A. M., No. 32, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: V. A. Astell, W. M.; M. L. Paulson, S. W.; N. A. Fronchew,
J. W.; Fred Baker, Trans.; F. W.
Gillman, Secy.; L. Pruit, S. D.; C.
Jorgensen, J. D., and F. A. Baker, trustees.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Smith visited
Janesville relatives yesterday.

Miss Edith Parkbanks will arrive from Florence, Wis., Saturday to spend in two weeks' vacation.

The Free Methodist Sunday school held their Christmas exercises consisting of a good program and a tree in the sanctuary chapel last evening.

Mrs. Henry Arthurs entertains the Twilight club this afternoon and evening at her home on Garfield avenue.

A large number of the members of the K. P. lodge in this city attended a banquet in Beloit last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Capper of Beloit are guests of the lady's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. P. L. Erdahl.

IS BIG CAR FAMINE
TO COME ONCE MORE?

This Question Has Worried Washington Authorities Not a Little.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.—Is the country face to face once more with a car famine? Are the conditions that flooded the northwest last winter to recur again? This is a subject that is worrying the administration. Franklin K. Lane, a member of the interstate commerce commission, recently made a trip through the west and middle west to look over the ground.
He returned with his apprehensions somewhat allayed, but recent reports have served to renew his fears.

The report on the internal commerce of the country during October, just issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, throws a significant sidelight on the problem. The report says:

"The number of cars handled during the month by 38 reporting car associations, 2,555,750, was over seven per cent larger than the number handled in October, 1906, although even the larger car supply did not prevent accumulation and delay of traffic at important centers. The inadequacy of the railways to move all traffic offered is best illustrated by the decision of certain trunk lines to discontinue temporarily the making of contracts with western shippers for the transportation of grain from the lakes to the Atlantic seaboard."

During the month the congestion was least felt along the Great Lakes, where the traffic, 1,125,000 net tons, was greater than any month during the season, except August, and exceeded by 25 per cent the total of freight carried in October of last year. With their fleets of steamers developing rapidly, the lakes are being resorted to as a means for relieving the pressure on the railroads.

They are proving the salvation of the Northwest.

The solution of the traffic question, which is becoming most serious to be found in a scientific development of the rivers of the country. This is the opinion of practically every public man. President Roosevelt's belief in it is well known.
It is supported by students of economic conditions in every walk of life.

In order to push forward this work of improvement, the government cannot spend less than $50,000,000 a year. To spend less will mean that the Panama canal will be finished before the rivers and harbors of the country are in condition to share in the increase of commerce that the opening of the big ditch will bring about. There is now a vast amount of work, approved by the government engineers and awaiting only the funds necessary for its undertaking. This work contemplates the expenditure of upwards of $300,000,000. At a yearly expenditure of $50,000,000 spread over ten years this can be carried for.

The National Rivers and Harbors congress has been a consistent advocate of such an expenditure. It has maintained that the time was approaching, and approaching rapidly, when the railroads will be physically unable to care for a tithe of the traffic offered. At the organization's great convention here this month, James J. Hill of the Great Northern and W. W. Finley, president of the Southern railway, frankly confessed that the fears of the advocates of waterway development were well grounded.

Captain J. F. Ellison, secretary and planning for a vigorous crusade for new members. The membership of the organization extends to every it is planned to continue the campaign until every believer in added means of transportation for the country is enrolled.

Happy Combination of the Two a Drawing Card at the Myers Theatre.

Master Brown and his wonderful Dog Tige were the drawing-card at the Myers theatre at a matinee and evening performance yesterday. Butter, as portrayed by Master Reed, a diminutive gentleman of some thirty-two inches, proved himself to be the mischievous imp that his plotless debut, and Tige was funny as could be. Edwin Lamar as the wonderful canine with superhuman intelligence capered into the hearts of every child at the matinee, while Miss Alice Mortlock as Mary Jane Proved very acceptable to all who witnessed the performance. A clever ballet of pretly girls supported the leading characters.

What the Pajama Bay of "Fate and the Freshman"

Millwaukee Sentinel: The plot, like the plot of all farces, is twisted and tangled. There is a young freshman who is forever getting into trouble, and his efforts to keep out of water result in every one else keeping in it until the final curtain of the play. The plot is consistent, with many amusing situations; the dialogue is crisp and breezy; the complications are numerous, and there is a wealth of snappy comedy throughout. In fact, it's a corking good play from beginning to end, and thoroughly enjoyable.

Madison Democrat: A brilliant college production, written around an excellent plot, interpreted to its fullest extent by the youthful historians and singers in an excellent setting; that in substance tells the story of the success of the Harefoot play,
"Fate and the Freshman" produced at the Fuller last night.

7th BALLAD of PATIENCE POTTER and PERSEVERANCE PELL

ROBERTUS LOVE
COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY ROBERTUS LOVE

NOW, lean and list or ye'll have missed,
Without ye heed my rhymes,
A tale that stirs, of him and hers,
In old New England times.

When Plymouth Rock was still the dock
Whereon did land our sires,
Near by did dwell one Goodman Pell,
But late from Albion's shores.

An eke anear, for neighbor's cheer,
Did Goodman Potter bide,
Whose pilgrim soul was sound and whole—Forsooth, it had been tried.

A maid as sweet as man may meet
Was Perseverance Pell,
And there were swains of mickle brains
Loved Patience Potter well.

But these two fairs with prouder airs
Ye common flock disdain
And set them both to plight their troth
To but a single swain.

This favored wight is Ezra White.
A fairsome youth is he.
But 'twixt ye twain this fuddled swain
Cannot himself agree.

Ye maid of Pell he loves full well,
Ye Potter lass ye same,
But for his life which one to wife
Poor Ezra cannot name.

"My only loves," quoth
Ezra, "doves Fit each to share my cote,
Upon my mettle ye'll
have to settle
This matter by a vote."

So on ye street, with gong to beat,
Ye Crier of ye town
To warn and call ye good men all Went loudly up and down.

"Come one, come all, to Publick Hall!"
Ye lusty Crier cried.
"That maid ye name is fairest, same Is Ezra White his bride."

So gathered they to have his say,
Each man, and claim, a kiss
From her who might be Mistress White—
Elected to the bliss.

Sweet Patience there upon her chair
In wistful patience sate,
While Perseverance by prompt appearance
Was ready for her fate.

Ye votes are cast; all in at last,
Ye tellers make ye score.
For Patience ten are told—but, then,
For Perseverance more.

Eleven polls (bless God their souls!)
Made Maiden Pell the winner.
So they begun, those twenty-one,
And kissed her—every sinner!

While Patience sate, demure, sedate,
And Ezra, much amazed,
Upon that kissing himself was missing,
Quite starkly, darkly gazed.

Then up rushed Ez. "See here!" he says,
"My choice in truth ye make.
One kissed by twenty is kissed a-plenty,
And her I will not take!"

"Fresh lips for me, say I!" says he.
So Ezra White did grab
Sweet Patience Potter ('twas thus he got her)
And kissed her right smack-dab!

So they were wed and lived, 'tis said,
In lifelong wedlock well,
While lived and died as no man's bride
Poor Perseverance Pell.

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL

The cigarette question is just now perplexing New York society women and is almost as vital a question as the rigorous enforcement of the blue law last Sunday and this. Shall women be permitted to smoke publicly in the better cafes? The refusal by the management of the Hotel Plaza to allow Mrs. Patrick Campbell this privilege last week has met with a storm of disapproval, especially among the leading actresses. Blanche Ring says: "It is a shame when we can't indulge in this custom if we want to." A number of others express this same feeling. On the other hand, Mrs. Henry Conger, who has been prominent in reform work, expressed herself in no undecided terms when interviewed yesterday. "Think continual exhibit," she said, "of woman's desire to use men and man's vice is a shame. Many habits which are deplorable in men are disgusting in women and this is certainly one of them. Why, can you imagine that type of motherhood, all women should cherish, as smoking? It is a shame and disgrace to our sex that women smoke at all, but when this is put on exhibition in our leading cafes it is entirely too much and should be stopped. I know it is customary abroad, but this does not prove that we should lower our moral standard to meet theirs."

Colors and Vegetation.
Red glass hastens vegetation, while blue glass retards it. Sensitive plants like the mimosa grow 15 times higher under red glass than under blue.

Quality of Leadership.
One man in ten leads. The nine follow. The one leads because he not only knows how to work, but primarily because he can make the nine work.—John A. Howland.
